

Little Amazon Safari

Deep in the Thai jungle we swim with elephants and explore majestic mangrove forests

Deep in the Thai jungle in neighboring Phang Nga Province awaits a gateway to endless waterways and mangrove forests ready to be explored.

This playground of wetlands and river estuaries is home to a huge variety of animal life and virgin forests bordering the Khao Sok National Park.

Join us for an unforgettable day trip journey visiting this stunning unspoiled area, visiting the sea turtle conservation centre, swim with elephants, take a boat ride down the majestic Takuapa river and have lunch in a authentic local restaurant overlooking rice paddies while buffaloes freely roam.
