

Bamboo Rafting, ATV, Waterfall Swim & Picnic

Deep in the majestic Phang Nga jungle we float down the river on traditional bamboo rafts, explore the lush jungle by ATV & picnic under a waterfall

Neighboring Phang Nga province to the north of Phuket is a rich adventure playground of fresh water canals which feeds from the Lampi mountain range occupying a vast area of over 45000 hectares covered by fertile tropical rainforest.

The waterfall is a local attraction and has a large natural pool excellent for swimming. Overall height reaches over 50m and comprises multiple cascades and is particularly breathtaking May to November.

The bamboo rafts float you through the fresh crystal clear waters that originate from the lush green Lampi mountain range while you are guided by sounds of tropical wildlife. Afterwards we explore the lush jungle by ATV (All Terrain Vehicle) before we take a dip in the cool water of the mountain streams and picnic under a waterfall.

This adventure is inclusive of all equipment, private transfers, private Paresa guide, bamboo raft, ATV, fresh towels, cold towels, beers, soft drinks and a gourmet picnic lunch.
