

Bamboo Rafting Safari & Waterfall Swim & Picnic

Deep in the majestic Phang Nga jungle we float down the river on traditional bamboo rafts & picnic under a waterfall

Deep in neighboring Phang Nga province, north of Phuket Island, lays a network of fresh water canals which feeds from the Lampi mountain range, a rich tropical playground which occupies a vast area of over 45000 hectares, covered by fertile tropical rainforest.

The waterfall is a local attraction and has a large natural pool excellent for swimming. Overall height reaches over 50m and comprises of multiple cascades.

Abandon yourself to the sounds of tropical wildlife while you are guided on the bamboo rafts floating on the fresh crystal clear waters that originate from the lusciously green Lampi mountain range. This adventure is inclusive of all equipment, private transfers, private Paresa guide, bamboo raft, fresh towels, cold towels, beers, soft drinks and gourmet picnic lunch.
