

Jungle Trekking, Waterfall Swim & Picnic

In neighboring Phang Nga Province we explore the lush jungle on a 2 hour hike, swim and picnic under a waterfall

Neighboring Phang Nga province, north of Phuket Island, is home to the dense Lampi mountain range. Raw and rugged rainforest, like you have never witness it - a true 2 hour hike gem for those seeking some adventure in this breathtaking virgin forest scenario.

Trekking gets you closer to nature, be rewarded by this peaceful and serene environment of incredible beauty. Abandon yourself to the sounds of the jungle and let the wildlife vibrate through the canopy above while a vast array of wild flowers, plants and life on the forest floor keeps you focused on every step.

Finish the walk by and take a dip in the cool waters of the mountain stream before sitting down to a gourmet picnic lunch under the waterfall.

This adventure is inclusive of all equipment, private transfers, private Paresa guide, park fees, fresh towels, cold towels, beers, soft drinks and a gourmet picnic lunch.
