

Private City Tour

Itinerary:

10:00

- Leave from Paresa and head to Old Phuket Town, the must-see Old Town with historical Sino Portuguese buildings. A leisurely walk through the streets offers a delightful peek into this lively cultural center.

Then select 2 choices of sightseeing, from

- The scenic splendour of Rang Hill. Have a drink and relax enjoying wide views of Phuket Town.
- Big Buddha is one of the island's most important and revered is 45m high.
 - The image sits on top of the Nakkerd Hills between Chalong and Kata, is 45m in height and covered in white Burmese marble. The lofty site offers the best 360 degrees views of the island.
- Wat Chalong, Phuket's most beautiful and renowned Buddhist Temple.

Lunch (at own expense) is suggested at one of the great eateries below

- Raya Restaurant - is one of the best Thai restaurants in Phuket town. Set in a renovated Sino-Thai mansion originally built at the beginning of the 20th century, this venue takes its patrons back to the past and serves them such a delicious genuine local cuisine.
- Blue Elephant - a luxurious restaurant in a stunning Sino-Portuguese style house, presenting authentic Thai Food. The interior consists of restaurants, sales zones, banquet and cooking areas.
- Kan Eang@pier – if you prefer to sit by the sea and enjoy seafood, this is the spot to be at.

16:00

- Aim to arrive back at the resort. However the exact order and timing will depend on your choices.
